

Will your next Scouting Adventure be in Iceland?

Why Iceland is a good destination for Scouts and Guides: • Easy to access from most major European and US cities • Diverse nature, helpful locals and plenty of options for adventure • Repeatedly chosen the safest country in the world by the Global Peace Index

Hraunbyrgi, Scout Center Hafnarfjörður, Iceland

We are open from the beginning of May to the end of September, welcoming groups and individuals to Hafnarfjörður.

Our mission is to create an inspiring and engaging space for Scouting activities and outdoor adventures.

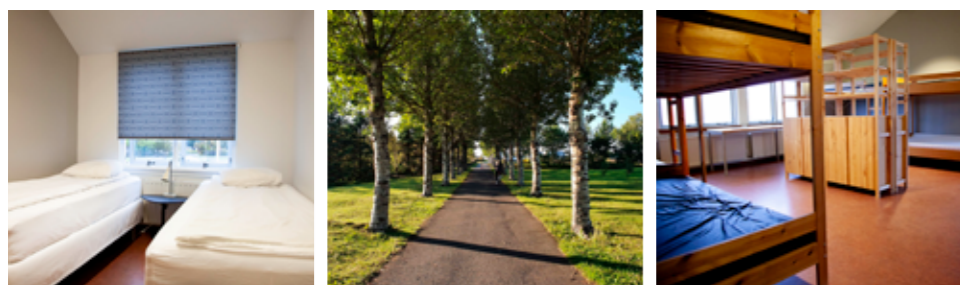

Hraunbyrgi is a Scout center located in Hafnarfjörður, a town known for its rich history and close connection to nature, elves and vikings. Owned and operated by the Scouting group Hraunbúar, the center offers excellent facilities, including camping grounds, hostel-style accommodations for up to 45 people, and a variety of activities both on-site and nearby.

During the winter season, we accommodate groups of 10 or more, providing a comfortable and convenient base for your activities.

Hraunbyrgi is easily accessible, located only 30 minutes from Keflavík International Airport and connected to Iceland's Ring Road. Hafnarfjörður is close to Reykjavík, and the capital's vibrant city center is just a short drive away, offering additional attractions and amenities.

As Hraunbúar approach their 100th anniversary in 2025, we are transitioning Hraunbyrgi from primarily serving as a tourist facility to becoming a dedicated Scout center.

For further information and bookings, contact us at hraunbuar@hraunbuar.is

Úlfljótsvatn, Scout Center South Iceland

We are open all year round, and are the national Scout Center of Iceland.

Groups can rent equipment, book excursion and/airport transfer through us, as well as on-site activities, both self-led and guided.

We are a one hour drive from Reykjavík, and about 1,5 hour from the international airport (Keflavík). Plenty of Iceland's most visited tourist attractions are within a 1-2 hour drive from Úlfljótsvatn.

Want to explore the Golden Circle, ride an Icelandic horse or hike a glacier? We can arrange all of that and more!

Indoor accommodation for up to 66 with meals, campsite with or without meals.

We also offer an exciting volunteer program for international scouts, 18 and older. See more on our website!

Main site for the World Scout Moot 2017.

For further information and bookings, contact us at ulfljotsvatn@skatarnir.is

Hamrar, Scout Center Akureyri, Iceland

We are open all year around and welcome groups and individuals to the north.

Rented equipment available for groups. Direct flights from UK, Holland and Switzerland to Akureyri airport and only about 5 km from the airport to us. Akureyri is by Iceland's Ring road and it is about 5 hours drive from Reykjavik to the north.

Hamrar is a large campsite located just outside off Akureyri, we have good facilities, camping grounds and wide range off activities on or off site.

During winter we can offer groups access to our local scout huts for groups and the campsite is also with great opportunities for winter activities.

For further information and booking contact us at hamrar@hamrar.is

