

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

You cross the border legally as a student / tourist with a student / tourist visa, granted by one of the EU member state. The date is about to expire.

You don't manage to cross the border:

Go back to your departure (depar-

The negative decision has been confirmed on appeal.

Go back to your country of origin.

Your request has been refused. The legal time limit to lodge an appeal to that decision is really short, as a consequence you miss the opportunity for appealing the decision. You are sent to an administrative detention center, for the administration to organize your way back to your country of origin.

Your request has been refused. The legal time limit to lodge an appeal to that decision is really short, as a consequence you miss the opportunity for appealing the decision. You are sent to an administrative detention center, for the administration to organize your way back to your country of origin.

Your request has been refused. But you lodge an appeal to the court.

Continue your journey.

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

The negative decision has been overturned on appeal. Status granted!

End of the journey.

You cross the border legally, thanks to a humanitarian visa:

Continue your journey.

You cross the border illegally, thanks to a smuggler:

Continue your journey.

You get caught at the border while crossing illegally and are sent to an administrative detention centre.

You ask for international protection and are sent to an overcrowded camp. Facilities are insufficient. Your application takes a long time to be examined.

Take the long path to the step "Application".

You ask for international protection and are hosted in an asylum seekers centre. You can benefit from the assistance of NGOs and have your claim examined quickly.

Take the short path to step "Application".

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

Procedure Card

In the shoes of migrants

You are about to ask for international protection ...but you get caught in a trafficking organisation.

Take the long path to the step "Application".

The police do not accept to register your asylum application :

You are sent to the Administrative Detention Centre.

Did you enter legally in Europe when you were on the Border square?

If so, take the short path to the "Application" square; if not, take the long path.

Your application has been examined. You finally got the status! End of the journey.

All characters but Issa from Mali can obtain this card: if you are Issa, please take another card..

